This is because a deposit is required which is held on the credit card until the vehicle is returned. In some countries you may be required to present two credit cards when renting higher vehicle groups. Always ensure that the card has sufficient credit available at the time of rental. The amount authorized is generally the insurance excess and the fuel deposit, but it varies depending upon the size of the vehicle, the age of the driver, the car rental agent, rental duration and pick up location.
 In the event that you fail to present a valid credit card or lack of sufficient funds available on the credit card, car rental agent may refuse to release the vehicle. In these instances, no funds paid will be reimbursed.
- Car Types
 CarTrawler searches from over 450 suppliers. The vehicle displayed and models listed are the most common vehicles used by our car rental partners. We cannot guarantee the make or model of the rental vehicle will be the same as the vehicle displayed on our website.
- Voucher
 Your voucher must be produced on arrival at the rental desk. Failure to present your voucher, means we cannot be held responsible for any additional charges.
 No refunds will be issued unless Agent received voucher from Renter.
 Please note: We are not responsible for overcharges on rentals where the voucher was not presented to the local agent on collection of the vehicle
